

Start up Empowered

Where?

Penzance - Truro - Newquay

More and more people are taking the leap and turning what they love and do well into a business. Being excellent at something and making a business out of it are two totally different things. There are many courses that give you the skills to administer and grow your business effectively. In order to succeed, it's essential to know the essential strategies for success and to develop the subtle skills that will have you stand out from the others.

Who is this course suitable for?

This two-day course is excellent for start-ups and for the fledgling business in its first twelve months of trading.

Why would you want to attend this course?

Are you nervous about turning a hobby into a profession? Do you want to make money from what you love and aren't sure if you can? DO you want to be the best and present as the best? Would you like to easily and effectively communicate your excellence in print, on the phone and in person easily? And have a winning mindset modeled and drawn from the most successful achievers on the planet.

What can this course offer you?

- World-class essentials to enable you to apply the mind frames of highly successful business leaders.
- Learn the mind frames for success in any situation
- An insight into your customers' minds
- Key routes to ensuring you maximize the value of EVERY communication
- How to structure your language and words to quickly spread awareness of what you do
- Set outcomes and goals you actually achieve.
- The value of feedback
- Personal and professional congruence - the ultimate power brand.
- The optimum state for creativity and calm.

- How to build rapport with your clients and customers and consistently give them a blow away experience of you.
- How to inoculate yourself from disempowering beliefs.
- Overcome any obstacle and have it be succeed
- Consistently?
-

This two-day course is jam packed full of insights skills and experiences from real life situations and experience of working with a worldwide business client base. All of which enable you to transform the ease and extent to which you can succeed.

How can you achieve this in such a short space of time?

This two day course runs from 9.30 am to 7 pm and is fast paced as allot of content is covered in such a short space of time. There are regular short breaks throughout the day

This course is delivered in classroom format with experiential exercises so you can know that you totally get all of the learning's.

How does all this happen?

In a one-day seminar, presented in a classroom style with Experiential exercises so you know you have totally able To do all everything that will enable you to be well and Healthy.

Who is Training me?

Victoria Whitney llb, is a certified Trainer of NLP and Certified Trainer of Hypnotherapy and a master of time Line therapy™ who has over 10 years experience in the Personal empowerment field. Victoria also has followed The traditional career path through the NHS and other Organizations and now works internationally as a Personal And professional Achievement coach and breakthrough Therapist. As well as leading open personal development Trainings.

Investment price

£275 individually

Groups of 5 or more £200

Maximum group size 11

Where?

Penzance

Truro and Newquay

When?

Dates through 2011 AND 2012

Call the office on 01736

785868 to confirm.

What if you do spend one day of your life attending this Training imagine now that you after attending the course you are at the end of your first successful year of trading. You are amazed at how time has flown since you have been so busy with opportunities you had never even dreamed possible before you attended this course. With your enhanced mindset and the skills you have used them daily to create the solid success foundations, which will sustain your business for life.